MR. REIMANN

William Reimann died Aug. 26th at the Mary Fletcher hospital in Burlington after being a great sufferer for two years with a cancer. During this time all that medical skill and loving care could do was done for his relief and he bore his suffering with true Christian fortitude.

He was born in Jannowitz, Germany, March 14, 1859. His trade was that of a cabinet maker, but he also did farming. On Oct. 11, 1886, he was united in marriage to Miss Emma Smith. To them were born two sons and when they were small Mr. and Mrs. Reimann decided to come to America. On the way over one of the boys sickened and died and they were obliged to bury the little body in the ocean. They finally arrived at a Canadian port with the other child ill and two weeks from the burial of the first the second boy was buried in Montreal. Truly a sad beginning for a new life in a strange country. This was 25 years ago. Since then three daughters, Mrs. Richard Rexford of East Haven and Miss Elsa Reimann of this place were born to them and with the wife are left to mourn a kind husband and father.

Nine years ago Mr. Reimann bought a farm here and by their industry, honesty and pleasant dispositions the family have made many friends.

No doubt Mr. Reimann was saddened by the conflict in his native land and gave many anxious thoughts to the relatives and friends there, as we all would do in like circumstances, but he was always loyal to the land of his adoption.

The funeral was held at his

KIDNEYS WEAKENING?

LOOK OUT!

Kidney troubles don't disappear of themselves. They grow slowly but steadily, undermining health with deadly certainty, until you fall a victim to incurable disease.

Stop your trouble while there is time. Don't wait until little pains become big aches. Don't trifle with disease. To avoid future suffering begin treatment with GOLD MEDAL Haaslem Oil Capsules now. Take three or four every day until you are entirely free from pain.

This well-known preparation has been one of the national remedies of Holland for centuries. In 1896 the government of the Netherlands granted a special charter authorizing its preparation and sale.

The housewife of Holland would almost as soon be without food as without her "Real Dutch Drops," as she quaintly calls GOLD MEDAL Haaslem Oil Capsules. They restore strength and are responsible in a great measure for the sturdy, robust health of the Hollanders.

Do not delay. Go to your druggist and insist on his supplying you with GOLD MEDAL Haaslem Oil Capsules. Take them as directed, and if you are not satisfied with results your druggist will gladly refund your money. Look for the name GOLD MEDAL on the box and accept no other, in sealed boxes, three sizes.

NEWPORT'S NEW BAKERY
BUILDING A MODEL.

Ten Employees in Hamblet Bakery Put Out 1200 Loaves of Bread Daily. Business Increasing.

Newport claims to have one of the largest and best equipped bakeries in this part of the state.

Ralph Hamblet, the proprietor, purchased the bakery business of A. T. Rogers, March 27, 1916. At that time the bakery was doing a flourishing business which has continued to grow, until Mr. Hamblet felt the need of larger quarters and purchased of E. J. Renihan one-half of the Bowley property, which included the store occupied by Daley & Landry and the Richardson Photo shop.

On the land in the rear of the store, the Bakery, which is 24x72 feet and two stories above the basement, has been built. The cement work of the foundation and floor required nearly 500 bags of cement. F. F. Sargent was the contractor and builder. The work is provided with toilet rooms and shower bath with individual lockers for the employees.

The block is heated by an American Ideal Steam Heating plant, installed by Blodah & Carr, has hardwood floors and is provided with a 1500-pound-capacity elevator. The room is finished in a cream color, the first floor is provided with two improved Ordway hollow tile ovens, installed by H. A. Johnson Co. of Boston. This floor contains the bread wrapping room, is provided with a new dough mixer, divider, rounder and moulder, and a bread proofing machine. The work bench, 6x12 feet, is made of gum wood which would be hard to find in any other bakery in this vicinity.

The second floor contains a large flour sifter and flour storage room.

The present output of the bakery is 1200 loaves per day, with a capacity of 4000, which Mr. Hamblet is trying to reach. A special doughnut room is located in the basement.

Early in September the salesroom for the bakery will be located in the rooms now occupied by the Richardson Photo shop. Mr. Hamblet has seven men and three ladies in his employ and not a dull moment.

home Aug. 29. His pastor, Rev. W. C. Johnson officiated. H. G. Ruiter was director and George Calkins, George Kinne, Osmond Brown and Lemuel Wilson, Sr., were bearers. There were many beautiful flowers. Burial was in the village cemetery. Although always quiet and unassuming, Mr. Reimann will be missed not only by his family, but by the Congregational church society, where he was a faithful attendant.

Cement Industry Big.

Statistics of the cement industry in the United States in 1917, prepared by the United States geological survey, indicates that the total shipments of Portland cement from the mills amounted to 90,703,474 barrels valued in bulk at the mills at $122,745,083. This represents a decrease in quantity of 4.1 per cent and an increase in value of 17.8 per cent compared with 1916. The production of Portland cement in 1917 was 92,814,202 barrels, compared with 91,521,196 barrels in 1916, an increase of 1.4 per cent. This production holds the record, the next highest output, 92,097,131 barrels, having been in 1913.

Make preparations to attend the Ladies' supper in the Congregational vestry some time in September. Come and let Mrs. Berd show you how to manage your children. Come and let the ladies tell you a secret about—well, something that has puzzled the people all through life. There will be an excellent program. Come and have the time of your life. More later.

An automobile accident occurred just above Mr. Boulanger's Sunday when Isaac Laclair collided with a team, smashing one wheel, breaking the thill. The people were thrown from the wagon, the man and little girl being somewhat injured. They gave their names as Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Maxwell and daughter of East Charleston. Mr. Laclair attempted to turn out of the sand ruts but hit the wagon. He settled with Mr. Maxwell for the damage done.

Possibly.

A physician was giving an informal talk on physiology on the porch of a southern hotel.

"Also," he said, "it has lately been found that the human body contains sulphur."

"Sulphur!" exclaimed a girl in a blue-and-white blazer. "How much sulphur is there in a young girl's body?"

"Oh!" said the physician, smilingly, "that varies."

"And is that," asked the maiden, "why some of us make better matches than others?"
